Dear Ron,

Wonder of wonders! I went to the files and the first record I pulled had almost every piece of information you requested.

Donald Brock was registered in Troop 308, Camas, Washington. While I couldn't find the exact Eagle date I did narrow it down to early 1978.

At charter renewal in 1/78, he was listed as Life; in 1/79 as Eagle. Advancement reports show receipt of the Bronze Palm on September 18, 1978, and the Gold Palm on March 12, 1979.

Hope that helps.

Sincerely,

Donald K. Chilcote

Dear Ron:

We last wrote to you in June of 1986 related to the above-named individual. We really have enough facts in our file to refuse registration, since he was convicted and sentenced related to sexual contact with youth. I still must have a Confidential Record Sheet so that we may identify him and have all the necessary information should he move to another part of the country.

I am enclosing another Confidential Record Sheet which I would like to have completed. Please do your best to get this completed with all the information. This will enable us to identify Mr. Brock wherever he might move. If you do have other information which will strengthen our file, please send it also.

I have this date talked to:

- a. District Court at Colfax, Wa.
- b. Sheriff office Colfax, Wa.
- c. Court of Appeals, Spokane, Wa.
- d. Prosecuting Attorney at Colfax, Wa.

All of these calls have convinced me that I must travel to Colfax, Wa. to obtain any of the information requested on the confidential record sheet. I will try to schedule this trip in the next 30 days.

Mr. Brock is living in Camas, Wa. which is part of the Columbia Pacific Council out of Portland, Oregon. His appeal has been heard by the Washington Court of Appeals - but their decision will not be known for 60 to 90 days.

As soon as my schedule allows, I will try to clear this matter up.

Dear Ron:

Thank you for your letter of June 1, concerning the registration of Donald C. Brock.

We appreciate the copy of the application and the newspaper clipping. We hope that you will keep us informed of the sentencing, which takes place after June 29.

Please give us any other information which you may have, which would strengthen our file. If there were any other incidents this will be helpful to us.

I would suggest that you refund the registration fee if you so desire and ask us for a refund which we would then make.

It is best to let the charter organization handle the entire matter on the troop level if they are willing to do so. This would mean that they would take the responsibility for the action rather than getting the council involved. Do not hesitate to call me on our Wats line if you have any questions.

Dear Paul:

Enclosed please find photo copy of 1 5/19/84 news story from the Lewiston Morning Tribune along with copy of adult registration form for Donald C. Brock.

Mr. Brock has not been active with the Troop from the time he was charged. His registration card is being held by the Troop Committee(at my request) awaiting outcome of the trial.

It is my understanding that no Scouts were involved. That Mr. Brock was involved with the Big Brother Program in Pullman and his one on one involvement with various youth was in connection with this other program.

Please advise me as to what further action should be taken in this matter(ei. refund of registration fee, letter to Bronck, involvement of Troop Committee or sponsoring group, ect.)

Whitman jury convicts student of morals charge

COLFAX — A 22-year-old Washington State University student was found guilty by a Whitman County Superior Court jury here Thursday of taking indecent liberties with a 12-year-old Pullman boy.

Donald C. Brock of Pullman was found guilty of one count of taking indecent liberties with a minor. A second count on the same charge was not submitted to the jury, and he was found innocent of a third count on the same charge. Each of the other charges involved other boys in separate incidents.

The conviction involved an incident in October 1983 where Brock was found to have had sexual contact with the boy by touching him, according to April McComb, acting prosecutor for Whitman County.

The case was turned over to the 12-person jury about 11 a.m. Thursday after two days of testimony. The jury deliberated for more than four hours before returning with the verdicts.

Sentencing was set by Judge Philip H. Faris for June 29. Brock faces a maximum of 10 years in prison on the felony charge. He was represented by Michael Pettit of Pullman.

Dear Paul:

Sorry for the long delay in responding to your request for further information on Donald C. Brock.

Facts:

Brock was originally charged with 3 seperate counts of taking indecent liberties with juveniles in the Pullman, Wa. area.

Prior to trial one charge was dropped. Brock was found guilty on one charge and innocent on the other.

A motion for a new trial was filed prior to sentencing. The motion was heard August 23 '84. At that time a continuance for sentencing was granted to September 28 '84. On the 28th a continuance to October 12 '84 was granted.

On October 12, Mr. Brock was sentenced to prison - which was reduced to one year in the county jail and 10 years probation.

At that time Mr. Brock appealed his conviction, the county has appointed an attorney for him and the Court retained jurisdiction. Mr. Brock is now living with his parents out of our Council. He reports 3 days a week to the City Police - must remain in his parents home after dark and has been assigned a probation officer. These conditions will continue until his appeal is hear.

Dear Paul:

Enclosed please find confidential record sheet on Donald C. Brock as you requested.

This has been very difficult to obtain. It has become quite clear that the Washington Court System is interested in protecting the "rights" of people awaiting appeals of convictions.

Mr. Brock's case was given to the Washington State Court of Appeals in Spokane, Wa. in 1985. In February 1986 the Court published its opinion upholding his conviction. Mr. Brock appealed to the State Supreme Court and the Court refused to hear the case.

Mr. Brock is now serving a one year jail sentence in Clark County Washington. His conviction, October 12, 1984 carried a 10 year probation and one year in jail.

His home of record in Camas, Wa. is within the territory of the Columbia Pacific Council out of Portland, Oregon.
